

ANNE STOTT - A FEW FACTS

Anne lives in Provincetown, MA where she busks for the tourists in the summer and writes new songs in the long quiet winters.

PENNSYLVANIA, Anne's latest album produced by Jack Petruzzelli (Patti Smith, Rufus Wainwright), is available at cdbaby, itunes, amazon.com, and local stores in Provincetown and Boston. An album of restlessness and desire, PENNSYLVANIA is a direct hit to the heart of the listener. The UMass Lowell Connector recently said, "Anne's music speaks more of...the conflicts were made of rather than the conflicts we've made."

Anne lived in New York City for a long time and still calls it home. When not busking or writing in Ptown, she plays New York City (Parkside Lounge, Kenny's Castaways, Rockwood Music Hall), Boston (Midway Café, The Plough and Stars) and smaller East Coast markets.

On the street, Anne plays her own songs as well as many covers ranging from spirituals to Joan Jett. Neil Young and U2 are the artists Anne covers most naturally.

Anne has asked many people, friends and strangers, whom she sounds like and the most common answer is: nobody. While Anne is perfectly content being hard to peg, she could also roll with her friend Scott's answer, which came in a text: Sinead plus Morrissey times the Vienna Boys Choir.

In 2005, Anne recorded her first album, an ep, called UNTITLED MIND. UNTITLED MIND was described as having "tracks...that will get stuck in your head and leave you humming all day" (Girlfriends Magazine). Indie-Music.com says Anne "lets her voice shine through and speak for itself".

Thanks to David Drake, Anne is a sometimes actress who most recently had the privilege of appearing as Mrs. Gibbs in Our Town at the Provincetown Theater.

Anne will be recording again in 2012, with an anticipated release in early 2013.

Anne has an unrelenting distaste for writing her own bio and thinks that rock singers shouldn't have to conform to such mundane customs. She offers you this fact sheet in its place.
